

Address: 115 Flood Road

Contemporary Building Name: 115 Flood Road

Historic Building Name: Flood House

Present Use: Residential

Historic Use: Residential

Architectural style: Vernacular

Date constructed: 1880 (Assessor)

Description: 115 Flood Road is plain, with architectural features of any style. An exterior brick chimney is prominently in view on the gable end of the building facing the street. The chimney is flanked by 1-over-1 windows at both first and second floors. Entrance is on the right (east) front elevation, behind a small gabled porch supported by slender square posts. Entrance is flanked by 1-over-1s at both floors. Entrance (west) elevation has no fenestration. There is no attic. Roof overhangs slightly.

Significance: The house at 115 Flood Street is a small vernacular structure. It was owned by the Flood family when the street was named.

Sources: Ransom, David. Historical and Architectural Resources Survey, Town of Marlborough, Connecticut. April 1998.

Notes: