

Address: 231 North Main Street

Contemporary Building Name: Charles Hall Gallery, Marlborough Arts Center and Museum

Historic Building Name: Dance Hall, Hall's Package Store

Present Use: Gallery / Arts Center

Historic Use: Package store, dance hall, recreational hall

Architectural style: Vernacular

Date: c. 1940s

Notes: The building was originally built in 1920, according to the assessor's office. It was originally the dancing pavilion, and then in 1952, Charlie Hall opened a package store. It closed in the mid-1980s, and the building was left empty until 1999, when the Marlborough Arts Center and Museum purchased the property, and in 2004, moved the building back from the road, and began renovations. The assessor now gives the property a construction date of 2005.
